REPORT ON WATER SUPPLIES

Water Main Extensions

During the year ended 31st December, 1948, the water supplies have been satisfactory, both as regards quantity and quality, with the exceptions noted below:

(1) Snitterfield:

An extension from Snitterfield Park, embracing that part of the village fronting White Horse Hill and Bearley Road, has been undertaken, and many of the cottages and houses adjacent to this main are receiving supplies therefrom.

(2) Henley-in-Arden:

An extension off the Claverdon section has been taken along the new road to Blackford Pastures, the Council's housing site, in order to afford a supply to the new houses, both permanent and temporary.

(3) Alderminster:

This Parish has a piped supply since the last report, and almost every cottage and house has been connected to this main. This supply has relieved the desperate position which has existed in this village during the past 5 years, due to the poor yields from the shallow wells.

(4) General:

Due to the further extensions undertaken, 50% of the houses in this Rural District are now connected to a piped supply or standpipes.

Water Shortages:

The following Parishes experienced shortages of water during the year:

(1) Loxley:

The normal supply for this village is from springs, but owing to the fall off in their yield during the summer months, it was again necessary to resort to pumping water from an emergency supply from the well adjoining the reservoir.

(2) Long Marston and Dorsington:

Some difficulty was experienced in supplying these villages from the main fed from the Evesham Rural source, and consequently it was found necessary to connect with the North Cotswold source, as a result, no further difficulties have been experienced.

(3) Bearley:

The whole supply for this village, including the Camp site which have been taken over by the Council for housing purposes, is still being obtained from the high level tank at the R.A.F. Station, Snitterfield.

(4) Henley-in-Arden:

Difficulties have been encountered in respect to the supply from the Birmingham source due to the inadequate size of the main from Hockley Heath.

During some part of the year it was found necessary to augment this supply by the use of water from the Forde Hall reservoir.

(5) Kineton:

The yield of the springs at King John's well and Brookhampton, fell during the summer period, and consequently it was found necessary to obtain water from the borehole.

It is intended to assist the high levels at Kineton by the provision of "Boosting Plant" at the pumping station.
